

Mackintosh Style

By the end of the 19th Century the Glasgow School of Art was one of the leading academies in Europe and its reputation for new ideas in decorative arts and design reached a zenith. At the very heart of this success was the talented artist and architect Charles Rennie Mackintosh. Original Style's Glasgow Rose 3-tile sets are a tribute to the enduring interest in Mackintosh and evoke the very essence of his distinctive style.

Tiles used in this setting: 6992B Glasgow Rose RH 3-tile set, 6993B Glasgow Rose LH 3-tile set, 6994B Glasgow Border, N9921 Sigma, N9903 Skirting (both Jet Black), GPG9002 Palm Green Half Field Tiles, B9000 Colonial White Field Tiles with Black 2" Squares from the Victorian Floor Tiles Brochure.

For flooring see Original Style Victorian Floor Tiles Brochure.

6992B Glasgow Rose RH 3-tile set

6993B Glasgow Rose LH 3-tile set

Tiles used in this setting: 6994B Glasgow Border, N9921 Sigma border, GPG9002 Palm Green Half Field Tiles, B9000 Colonial White Field Tiles.

The background glaze colour is Colonial White. See pages 32-38 for details of plain and moulded tiles.

6994B Glasgow Border 152 x 25mm (6" x 1")

